

MEDIA RELEASE

September 3, 2014

NOW ON TWITTER @AreYouSafeLGL - Your Healthy Sexuality Source

The Leeds, Grenville and Lanark District Health Unit is excited to announce the launch of a Sexual Health Twitter account.

The account will offer factual information on a variety of Sexual Health topics including (but not limited to):

- sexually transmitted infections
- genital piercings
- pregnancy
- relationships
- birth control
- consent

Information on Health Unit clinics and how to access services will also be provided.

The account will be monitored by a Public Health Nurse who will answer any questions or discuss any concerns via telephone or e-mail. Please don't send personal information by way of social media.

Follow @AreYouSafeLGL for the most trusted healthy sexuality information.
