Internet Resources for Teachers

A Hotlist on Early Childhood Websites

<http://www.kn.pacbell.com/wired/fil/pages/listecewebsli.html>

From Sesame Workshop to Mr. Roger's Neighborhood, from Alfie to Little Explorers, this list is a good launching pad to Early Education Web sites.

Ann Fagan's Library and Educational Page

<http://pages.infinet.net/anke>

A site for librarians and educators which offers links to library, literature, and educational web sites. All sites have been verified for their suitability and many have been created by librarians. Some of the sites are directories or indexes while others are individual web pages.

Baldwin Cartier School Board: English Sector

<http://www.baldwin.qc.ca/>

A list of sites categorized in three areas: for kids and teen, search tools, for teachers. Links change seasonally, so it's worth going back.

Busy Teachers Web Site

<http://www.ceismc.gatech.edu/BusyT>

Designed to provide teachers with direct source materials, lesson plans / classroom activities with a minimum of site-to-site linking.

Canadiana

<http://www.cs.cmu.edu/Unofficial/Canadiana/README.html>

List of just about every canadian resource

CEARCH: Virtual School House

<http://sunsite.unc.edu/cisco/schoolhouse.html>

A meta-library of K-12 links

Canadian SchoolNet Grassroots Program

<http://www.schoolnet.ca/grassroots/e/project.centre/toolkit/index.asp>

Providing teachers with Internet project development resources as well as opportunities to participate in ongoing GrassRoots projects.

Education World (tm) Where Educators Go To Learn

<http://www.education-world.com/>

The heart of this site is a searchable database of over 20,000 education links for teachers, parents, and students. A good place to find lesson plans

Kathy Schrock's Guide for Educators

<http://www.capecod.net/schrockguide/>

A subject-arranged guide to hundreds of Web sites that help educators enhance their curriculum. Also includes a set of critical evaluation tools for teachers to use with students.

Theme-Related Web Sites on the Web

<http://www.stemnet.nf.ca/CITE/themes.html>

From Newfoundland's Gander Academy, a mammoth task undertaken by teacher Jim Cornish. From Archeology to Weather, the site offers annotated URLs based on themes taught in the primary/elementary grades. Excellent resource for teachers.

The World-Wide Web Virtual Library: Subject Catalogue

<http://www.w3.org/vl/>

A subject catalogue of Internet resources.

Yahoo! - Education: K-12

http://www.yahoo.com/Education/K_12/

A subject catalogue of resources that can be appropriate for K-12 education.

Wired Learning's Blue Web'n

<http://www.kn.pacbell.com/wired/bluewebn/>

A library of the best learning site on the web classified by subject and type.

The Canadian Kids Page

<http://www.canadiankids.net/default.jsp>

The Canadian Kids page is meant as a jumping in point for teachers and students, and parents and children exploring the Web together. Each month we receive many suggestions for sites to add to our list. We visit each site before linking to it, and we endeavor to link to kid-safe sites. The tremendous growth of the Internet and the World Wide Web since then has resulted in better indexing, and plenty of kids sites, both Canadian and from elsewhere around the world. We are currently linked to hundreds of safe sites - for children, their parents and their teachers.
