

Boys at Puberty - Answer Sheet

Fill in the blanks from the words in the box below.

Sperm are made in the testicles.

Sperm look like tadpoles.

Men make millions of sperm each day.

Men begin making sperm during puberty and continue to make sperm into old age.

Sperm and stuff from glands make the white fluid called semen.

If semen is going to come out, the penis must be erect.

The penis gets hard because it gets filled with blood.

Boys can get an erection if they think about or get nervous or anxious.

Semen can come out when a boy is sleeping. This is called dreams.

Sperm are needed to make a baby.

Choose the right word!

| | | | |
|--------------------|-------------------|---------------------------|-----------------|
| blood | wet dreams | dead | tadpoles |
| baby | testicles | semen | erect |
| sexy things | millions | nervous or anxious | old age |
| puberty | | | |

Female Reproductive System

