

Decision-Making Model: Scenarios

Scenario 1

Susie's brother/sister is always coming into her bedroom without knocking. She has just started wearing a bra and wants privacy when changing. Her brother/sister never listens to her demands for privacy. What could she do? Why does she feel this way?

Scenario 2

You are dancing at a school dance and your partner puts his/her hands on your butt. You feel uncomfortable with this behaviour. Why do you feel this way? What might you do?

Scenario 3

Connie told Jim that Michelle really likes him. Michelle has been talking to Jim a lot lately and she wants to be in his work group. Jim is uncomfortable because he's not really interested in girls. How do you think that he feels? What might he do?

Scenario 4

Michael likes Jenny, the new girl in class, and wants to ask her to dance. Michael is shorter than Jenny and is very shy and does not know how to ask her to dance. How does Michael feel and why? What might he do?

Scenario 5

A girl/boy in your class likes you and you like him/her, too. He/she pushes and teases about how your body is changing whenever he/she sees you. This makes you feel annoyed. How do you feel? What might you do?
